

Travis M. Morrow

President

Designated Arizona Real Estate Broker

Travis Morrow served as a finance intern for National Self Storage from January through May 2003. During that time, he developed a prototype for a competitive analysis database used to track competition trends for all NSS markets.

After a two-year activation with the Arizona Army National Guard, Mr. Morrow rejoined National Self Storage as the Consulting Division Manager. His duties included conducting feasibility and market demand studies for National Self Storage for new development and acquisitions.

In January 2006, Mr. Morrow was promoted to Vice President of the company and President in 2017. He was and still is responsible for the acquisition, development, and growth of National Self Storage into the future. Mr. Morrow also stays active within state associations, currently serving as a director on the Arizona Self Storage Association and is the former President of the Nevada Self Storage Association and the Arizona Self Storage Association. He has been serving as a Director on the National SSA Board since 2014.

In 2017, Mr. Morrow was named President-Self Storage Division of Strat Property Management, Inc. in San Diego, CA. (www.stratprop.com) This appointment brings under his supervision an additional 55 self storage locations in California and Texas in addition to the 10 National Self Storage managed facilities.

Travis Morrow received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Finance from the University of Arizona, Tucson in May 2003. Mr. Morrow is the designated real estate broker for National Self Storage Management, Inc. in Arizona.